Offerings Include:

A Day of Faith-full PLAY!

Jesus reminds us to see the world through a child’s eyes, reminds us that we must become like children to know the Kingdom of God. Come for a day of stories, laughter, fun, reflection and prayer as participants recall the joy and purity of childhood and how we are called to allow this attitude impact and guide our faith.

Presenter: Marc Puechner

Celebrating Your Personal Environment through Scripture and Art

Explore the concepts of home places and home spaces in the personal environment when embraced as a balancing source of faith and vital energy. Participants will focus on gathering personal observations of their grounding experiences and reflections through the gift of God’s Word to frame their understanding of the role of environments in their daily living. This will culminate in the playful handling of a variety of art materials and spontaneous process to create a sculptural paper triptych. Bring copies of meaningful photos and small objects to add to your creation. This session requires an additional $5.00 fee for art supplies.

Presenter: Molly Groshek

Removing the Bushel Basket: Discovering and Uncovering Our Gifts

What are the unique gifts that God has blessed you with? How is God calling you to embrace, hone and share these gifts for the good of the community? In what part of your life is God challenging you to grow? This day of reflection will offer participants a creative and engaging process by which to answer these and other questions in a prayerful, restful space. Come ready to listen to the Spirit and discover gifts you never knew that you and your community were blessed with!

Presenter: Marc Puechner

In the Name of Jesus

Henri Nouwen's book of the same title explores the nature of Christian leadership by unmasking the perils and challenges inherent in ministry. He reminds us that Christians who would lead must let go of the drive to be powerful and popular and embrace a spirituality of humble servanthood. This session will invite participants to reflect on the wisdom in Nouwen's book and identify challenges (opportunities) in their own ministerial roles. Come follow in the footsteps of the best leadership coach we know, Jesus Christ!

Presenter: Ben Brzeski

Gathering Life's Fragments

Through the gift of scripture we will examine the concepts of gratitude and grace, taking time to inventory the unique gifts each participant brings to ministry. Participants will then create a mixed media wall or table sculpture to be used in your own personal prayer setting. Throughout the day we will look at and create works to represent our ideas about our past, present and future path with God. Feel free to bring favorite art tools (paints, fabrics, stamps, photos, beads, buttons, stickers, etc.). Great art supplies will be provided too. This session requires an additional $5.00 fee for art supplies.

Sometimes We Stumble: Praying through Obstacles in Ministry

Any effort undertaken in community is bound to experience obstacles from time to time. Participants will experience challenges that will focus on the body, mind and spirit and then invite them to prayerfully reflect on how these activities parallel various kinds of obstacles in their lives.

Blessed with Abundance

Do you know the treasures lying in your corner of the vineyard? Daily, you interface and interact with fellow ministers, all of whom are blessed with an abundance of God's gifts. This session will give each member of your community an opportunity to discern what aspects of their ministry bring forth deep joy. In sharing this discernment with one another, you will find new ways to honor one another's gifts and to give expression to your own deep calling.
